What does this mean?

This means the Pin is not available anywhere or to anyone on Pinterest.

How was this violation identified?

We identified this violation through our own investigation.

We made this decision using automated means. This means that our automated tools, which use a combination of signals to identify and take action against potentially violating and illegal content, identified your Pin.

Which policy was violated?

This Pin violates our Community Guidelines on adult content.

What you can do

If you think we've taken action by mistake, you can submit an appeal through your Reports and violations centre within 6 months of the date of this notice. For more information on how to submit an appeal, please visit our Help Centre:
